

AAAAEA is planning to have a party “Haflah”, for all members and non members:

When: Friday, December 19, 2008

Where: Marriott Hotel

Fair Oaks, Virginia

Cost: $50 per person, which includes 3 course meal and a live music band.

Please note that a minimum of 150 people is required to have this party. If we don't get 150 people as a minimum, the party will be cancelled. Therefore, I would ask everybody to reply to me as soon as possible so I could count the number to people who are committed to participate.
